SITEBRIEF / EXPANSION BRIEF

Toronto, Ontario, Canada

A new café with an indoor playground. Find areas to scout using popular Toronto cafés as audience references.
Retrieved 2026-10-22T18:35:00.232Z

Audience references: Dineen Coffee Co., FIKA Cafe, Rooster Coffee House

FIRST SCOUTING VISIT

Near Spadina-Fort York: This area shows a high audience percentile and strong affinity with the reference cafés. The local commercial streets like Dundas Street West, Ossington Avenue, and Queen Street West are vibrant and have an established coffee culture, as evidenced by nearby popular venues. There is also a precedent for play cafes in Toronto, suggesting market awareness for this concept.

Trade-off: Establishing a new café with an indoor playground in this area will require navigating complex permitting and zoning regulations, potentially classifying the play area as an "Amusement Establishment." This may necessitate specific commercial general liability insuranc…

Next action: Scout the commercial streets including Dundas Street West, Ossington Avenue, and Queen Street West to assess available commercial spaces for ceiling height and square footage. Confirm zo…

AREAS TO INVESTIGATE

Near Spadina-Fort York | 43.6466, -79.4222
Affinity 0.975 | Popularity 0.514 | Contrast 55.2 percentile points

Near York South-Weston | 43.6686, -79.4634
Affinity 0.965 | Popularity 0.527 | Contrast 52.1 percentile points

Area C | 43.7235, -79.3371
Affinity 0.988 | Popularity 0.589 | Contrast 51.0 percentile points

No existing outlets supplied. Reused real run, not a new live request.

RESEARCH SOURCES (FULL REPORT IN SCOUTING NOTES)

homeindexer.ca

cushmanwakefield.com

zolo.ca

Method: local affinity-minus-popularity percentile contrast, not probability lift. Taste is not demand, foot traffic, rent, availability or business success. Nearby dining is a ranked sample. Verify leases, permits and operating economics before committing.